Art Contest!

Calling all 9-12th graders
The South Carolina Marine Educators Association
Needs Your Help!

We need YOU to design the logo for our annual SCMEA Conference. Our conference is attended by science teachers, scientists and folks from parks, museums and aquariums! This year it will be held at Patriots Point on the USS Yorktown and we are excited!

CONTEST RULES:

The logo must include the following phrase: "Putting the Communication in Science"
Place some sort of emphasis on the "C", whether it be bolded, capitalized or highlighted in some way, that is up to you!

Paint, ink, mixed media are allowed as long as the entry is on paper and able to be scanned.

All entries must be in by Wed. May 1, 2019.

TO ENTER:

1. Create your logo
2. Snap a picture of your creation
3. Email it to HGiddens@patriotspoint.org by May 1st and include your school, teacher and grade

A winner will be decided by Wed May 15th. The artist will be contacted for the original piece to be scanned for use as the Fall 2019 Annual SCMEA Conference Logo with the understanding that there is no monetary compensation for the use of this logo by SCMEA. It will appear on SCMEA's website, social media, emails and in print.

PRIZE:

The winning artist will be invited to SCMEA's Annual Conference luncheon on Saturday Nov 2 onboard the USS Yorktown to receive recognition. Their original artwork will be on display throughout the conference. A goody bag filled from our local sponsors will be included!
